THE TREASURER'S STATE- MENT.

We surrender much of our space to the reply of D. A. Jenkins, Treasurer, to the Resolutions adopted at a meeting of the citizens of the County of Wake, on the 26th of June. As a part of the history of a case which has acquired temporary prominence, it will be read with interest.

The Sentinel says there were not five Senators who knew anything of the passage of H. B. 422 through the Senate, and wishes a suspension of judgment until Senators can be heard from. We imagine that the Senators will agree with us that the Senate is the proper place to have taken definite action on the bill, and will be likely to resent the imputation that they were so ignorant, so indifferent, or so corrupt, that they permitted the passage of a bill which damaged the State to the extent of a million and a half as charged by the Sentinel.

THE WILMINGTON CASE.

The Supreme Court Tuesday rendered their decision in the case of the people and A. H. Van Bokkelen from Wilmington, vs. J. P. Kennedy, et al. The decision has been expected and takes no one by surprise. Upon the ground of the decision, the 90 day resident clause, there must be some surprise that a principle which for four years past has underlaid every city or town charter, should have passed unquestioned until now, then to be declared unconstitutional. Truly the people of Wilmington will be very apt to think that party interest, more than Constitutional integrity, had its weight in depriving them of the relief they hoped to obtain under their amended charter.

THE Sentinel in arraigning the Legislature for its corruption or its negligence in passing H. B. 422, pays a very pretty compliment to the members from Wake for their attention to their duty, and adds that the members of Wake had washed their hands from all complicity with the business. Now all this is very nice. The members from Wake are near neighbors of Mr. Turner, and it may be good policy to make fair weather with them. But we think we know the members from Wake as well as the editor of the Sentinel does. They deserve all the encomiums he bestows on them. But then they are not going to take undue credit to themselves. They will not suffer themselves to be flattered with the idea that they were superlatively virtuous, or that they were specially attentive to their duties. They know that in this matter they did their duty, but that they did no more than the others members of the House.

They knew that the obnoxious bill required no special guardianship and the interests of the State were safe with the House. They did not know then, and they have not learned since, that there was anything specially wrong in the bill, and they will be ready to acknowledge that the members from Wake were no more pure and no more faithful than the majority which composed the House of Representatives of 1874-5.

The articles of the Sentinel arraigning the Legislature for corruption, negligence or otherwise are, we understand, to be used by the Radical candidates of Wake as campaign documents against the Democratic party. Has not the party enough to fight against without meeting unnecessary and false issues raised by one who claims to be the head of the party?

INDICTMENTS AGAINST COL. BUFORD, W. H. GREEN AND OTHERS.

We learn, that the Grand Jury of Wake County have found bills against the above gentlemen at the present term, for changing the gauge of the North Carolina Rail Road in violation of the Act of the Legislature forbidding such change. Judge Marshall of Richmond, Va., one of the counsel for the Company, reached this city yesterday morning.

We invite attention to the letter of Charles Nordhoff in comment upon the National Republican's contemptuous charge that Mr. Nordhoff was a "Dutch Jew." Mr. Nordhoff takes issue upon the inferences of the Republican, that to be a German destroys credibility of statement, to be a Jew makes a man unworthy of confidence.

We have many German citizens among us. We have many of the Jewish faith. Among the first we have many of the very best material, in intelligence and virtue, for the prosperity of the State. Among the latter are found those who in integrity, in industry, in strict propriety of conduct, in a total absence of all those vices which produce pauperism and crime, make them of exceeding value as citizens.

It should be borne in mind that the bonds of the Company were, in the expressed terms and meaning of the ordinance, a deposit followed by a bond for the security of the same. The Treasurer, therefore, held them.

The requirements of the ordinance were complied with on the part of the State and the Company in an exchange of bonds and the execution and delivery to the State by the company of a mortgage on its real and personal estate.

Very Respectfully,
Your Obit Servant,
D. A. JENKINS,
State Treasurer.

How the Women Smuggle.

A New York correspondent of the Buffalo Conserv says: "The custom-house inspectors noticed a lady on the English steamers who appeared to be very much overdressed. She was one solid mass of turbards and frills, and over her elegant black silk costume she wore an India shawl, which completely enveloped her person. She was stopped and asked if the "searcher" was there, where the female in attendance went "through her," and was rewarded by finding on her person more than $3,000 worth of jewels, faces and gloves. The gloves were found sewed up in the inside lining of her bustle, and the lace inside a large bridle of false hair which she wore. Her undergarments were all made to contain various articles, even her ears being made to do so. The searchers found a large sum of money in her pockets, and the guilty woman cried bitterly. She is lady well connected, and was allowed to go free upon payment of the sum total due the Government."

NOON DISPATCHES.

Russia in Central Asia and the Interest of England in the Matter.

LONDON, July 7.—In the Leader and Price trial, Beecher was put on the stand. He handed the affidavit of Leader and Price, and asked whether any statements in the affidavit referring to himself and Mrs. Tilson were true? In answer, he said "there is nothing that is true thus alleged not a word of truth in the allegations respecting him to the affidavits." The prisoners were held for the grand jury. Price plead guilty, Leader not guilty.

CHICAGO, July 9.—Meeting typographical union and employing printers resulted mutual concession's rates 47 cents per 1,000 on morning papers, 42 cents on evening papers. Dedication is three cents per thousand.

The Press Association of Georgia met in Atlanta yesterday. There is a large attendance. J. H. Estelle, of the Savannah News, re-elected President, for which purpose the visit of Prince of Wales to India offered a favorable opportunity. He closed by moving for the production of papers relative to the occupation of Khiva.

Mr. Hanburgh, member for Towns, seconded motion.

Mr. Hor. Bourke, under Secretary for the foreign department, replied that all papers in regard to the Khiva had been referred to the House. Other communications on the whole question of Central Asia had been exchanged. He was sure when they were produced the House and the Country would approve the course of the Government and recognize the spirit of friendliness which characterized the entire correspondence.—Nobody could deny that Russia had broken her engagements with regard to Khiva. He would not now discuss this subject for obvious reasons.

Both Russia and Great Britain ought to recognize the interest they have in maintaining a reasonable distance between their respective frontiers in Asia. The English Government was fully aware of the danger attending an advance on the frontier of either power. The government did not think an arrangement setting off and defining certain territory between them as neutral ground was feasible. It would be sure to lead to mutual misunderstanding, therefore the government did not intend to enter into any formal agreement on such a basis.

Retreat of the Carlists.

MADRID, July 7.—Gen. Darregay with fourteen battalions comprising almost the entire Carlist force in Valencia and Aragon has rapidly crossed the Ebro and Lerida between the stations Tordienta and Segura and retreated in the direction of Bashastron. It is believed that he is going to Urgel, but as he lacks cavalry to operate in that district which is free of mountains and full of liberals, it will be impossible for him to remain there. The Carlists traversed ninety kilometres in one day. Their flight liberates four provinces.

The Funeral of the Late Emperor Ferdinand.

VIENNA, July 7.—The funeral of the Emperor Ferdinand took place yesterday. The Emperor and Empress, the Archduke Maximilian, Crown Prince of Germany, and Italy; the entire Austrian Court, and the University Diplomatic body and Austrian Cardinals and Bishops assisted at the ceremonies, which were of the most imposing character. The remains were deposited in the church of Capuchins in the same vault with that of Maximilian.

They had received every attention after leaving Dublin.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

The Isaac Bell at New York—Her Account of the fatal Collision.

NEW YORK, July 7.—The steamer Isaac Bell which ran down the tug Lumberman in Hampton Roads arrived here to-day. The entry in her log book in relation to the accident is as follows: On 5th at 9:45 p.m., when about off Sewell's Point we saw a small boat with two men, both of whom were white, and the boat was heading straight for our starboard bow, showing both side lights. We gave the usual signal to pass starboard and kept steering in the right direction, when, to our surprise, the tug boat signified an intention of crossing our bow. The order to stop was given once given and one blast of our whistle was sounded but the tug again changed its course and before our ship's way could be checked, this collision ensued. The two men were thrown overboard and she sank instantly. Our anchor was at once dropped and three boats sent to the rescue of the crew. We succeeded in rescuing four men and one woman, whom we put on board the N. P. Banks which came to our assistance, and proceeded on our way.

The London Times on Spanish Affairs—Tumultuous Out-Look for the Alfonsists.

LONDON, July 7.—The Times, in a long article summarizing the military and political situation in Spain, gives a gloomy view of the Alfonsist cause, and says the recent minor successes of Gavella have been outweighed by reverses elsewhere. The Carlists seem about to begin a forward march. All bright hopes that Alfonso brought to Spain have vanished. His best general's are less active than before. They have won defeat instead of victory. The King has not yet named his Minister of War. Hence his Ministry seems ready to try the effect of as much religious tolerance as will permit protestants to worship in the back streets, but such concession will displease the clerical and not satisfy Alfonso's political supporters. Neither has the King made peace between warring factions. The press is utilized to prevent R from being displayed, and there are no funds to pay the army or navy.

A New Declaration of Independence.

WASHINGTON, July 7th.—The colored people celebrated at Hillside, near Washington, on Monday, when a new declaration of independence was made by Frederick Douglass and Professor Langston. Fred Douglass declared the independence of the colored race from pretended white friends who, he said, have injured more than they have helped the black man. Professor Langston remarked he was there to declare his independence for all who were his followers: "The hour has come, he said, when we must stand up for our rights as freemen. The signs of the times demand that we shall prove our fitness for all the duties of citizenship. The hour is come when we must manage our own institutions. If we have colored churches, let us have colored bankers. If we have colored colleges, we demand that we have our own officers. We have played the second fiddle too long. We better, we must have a change for the better."
